BRIDE OF TODAY.

MISS JULIA GOLDSBOROUGH, whose marriage to Mr. Tilghman Johnson of Easton, Md., took place this afternoon.

EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Marriage of Miss Goldsborough and Mr. Johnson of Easton, Md., This Afternoon.

Mrs. Lily Foster and Lieut. Col. Newcomer Wedded This Morning—Engagements.

A beautiful wedding took place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when Miss Julia F. Goldsborough, daughter of Mrs. Edmund K. Goldsborough, became the bride of Mr. Tilghman Johnson of Easton, Md.

The ceremony took place at the family residence on K street amid an elaborate floral decoration of white and pink roses and peonies, palms and ferns.

Rev. Dr. McConnell of Easton, Md., performed the ceremony in the spacious drawing room. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Edmund K. Goldsborough, wore a gown of white tulle, and her long court train was square at the end. She wore a tulle veil, caught to the hair in cap fashion, with a coronet of orange blossoms, and her bouquet was of lilies of the valley.

Miss Helena S. Robinson of Philadelphia, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and her gown was of pale yellow tulle, shading to pink. She wore a pink georgette crepe picture hat trimmed with tiny yellow roses, and her bouquet was of yellow tea roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Bateman of Easton, Md., and Miss Ruth Perkins of this city, wore white lace dresses over white satin with pink ribbons and their hats were of pink georgette crepe, trimmed with pink roses. They carried bouquets of pink roses.

Mr. Clement Goldsborough of Baltimore was best man.

A reception, at which nearly a hundred guests were present, followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left later for an extended wedding trip, the latter wearing a tailored suit of blue serge, with a close-fitting toque of black straw, trimmed with wings and fancy coral pins.

They will make their future home in Easton, Md.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Miss Anna Johnson, sister of the bridegroom, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Goldsborough of Baltimore.

Mrs. Elizabeth T. Bateman and Miss Bateman, Miss Maria Dimpel and Miss Lee Goldsborough of Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Woodall, Mrs. John Gibbs, Miss Margaret Goldsborough and Mr. and Mrs. William Poutney of Baltimore, Mrs. Alex. P. Robinson, Miss Robinson and Miss Helen Cash of Philadelphia.

The marriage of Mrs. Lily Armour Foster and Lieut. Col. Henry Clay Newcomer, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., took place this morning at 11 o'clock at All Souls' Church.

A delightful musical program was rendered during the seating of the guests, and the church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and white geonias against a background of palms and ferns.

Rev. G. B. Pierce, pastor of the church, officiated.

The bride wore a smart traveling suit of midnight blue poplin, with a blue hat trimmed with birds of paradise, and a corsage bouquet of mauve orchids and lilies of the valley.

The couple were unattended, and after an informal reception, held in the parlors of the church, left for their wedding trip.

The bride is the widow of Maj. Arthur B. Foster, U. S. A., and Lieut. Col. Newcomer is in command of the engineer district here.

They will reside at the Mendota on their return.

The Russian ambassador and Mme. Bakmeister, who have rented Stone Villa at Newport, are expected to arrive early in June for the season.

Prince Alfred Hohenlohe of the Austrian embassy is spending a few days in New York.

SUCCESS ATTENDS FETE FOR CHARITY BENEFIT

Country Fair at Friendship Nets
$4,500 for Washington Diet
Kitchen Association.

The fete recently given at Friendship for the benefit of the Washington diet kitchen proved to be successful in the raising of a large fund for the support of that worthy charity, as shown by a statement made today by Miss Mary Gwynn, president of the association.

Miss Gwynn says: "Allow me, through the columns of your widely read paper, to express the grateful thanks of the board of managers of the Washington Diet Kitchen Association for the generous support of those attending the country fair at Friendship May 1. For many weeks prior to this date a committee, under the direction of Mrs. George Howard, devoted their time to the preparations for making this event a success. The great number who attended showed their appreciation of our efforts by their generous patronage of every form of entertainment offered them, and we wish to acknowledge our deep gratitude."

Net Proceeds, $4,500.

"Every effort was made to observe the strictest economy in our arrangements. The sum of $800 covered all our expenses, and the net proceeds amounted to $4,500. As our only means of support of the infant welfare stations of the diet kitchen is by voluntary contributions this response to our appeal is most gratifying."

"The flower day, May 8, was equally successful. The flower committee shows $2,605.23 as the net profits of the sale of the flowers, 10,000 single flowers being sold and 750 bouquets. All the flower girls report that their flowers were quickly sold, and that there was a demand for three times as many as were offered for sale. The appeal for the babies opened all hearts, and we have many kind and unknown friends to thank for their help."

"Wishing to make as large a profit as possible on the flowers every effort was made to secure the cheapest specimens. After all the wholesale shops in New York and Baltimore had been visited the cheapest and best was found in a local shop."

Miss Caroline Ogden Jones of this city will be the maid of honor at the marriage of Miss Edith Tilghman Kneeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Kneeder, and Dr. Alexander Standish, which will take place June 2 at St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Brooks, Jr., of Baltimore, with the latter's stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia, will spend June in California, where they will visit the Panama-Pacific and San Diego exhibitions.

Marquis Arrico Tacoli, first secretary of the Italian embassy, who is in New York for a short stay, entertained at dinner last night.

Mrs. Robert John Hunter announces the engagement of her daughter, Clarissa Regene Bryan, to Mr. Alexander Connolly of this city. The wedding will take place in June.

Mrs. Hannis Taylor will entertain at dinner tonight.

Mrs. Reginald R. Belknap, wife of Commodore Belknap, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Averill, at Stockbridge, Mass.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Beulah Estelle Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Irene L. Taylor, and Mr. William Edward Fagel of this city, formerly of Wisconsin, Saturday, May 22, at 8 p.m., at Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church South.

Mrs. Newton E. Mason is entertaining informally at bridge this afternoon at the Chevy Chase Club.

Mrs. J. J. Knapp is giving a bridge party this afternoon, followed by tea, at her residence on 22d street. Mrs. James D. Glennan and Mrs. John H. Knapp will preside at the tea table, which will have a large centerpiece of pink peonies and ferns.

The guests will include Mrs. William C. Braisted, Mrs. Thorpe, Mrs. Francis S. (Continued on Ninth Page.)

selection the blue flower was chosen because it was the cheapest. That we were able to make so large a profit was the economy exercised in securing so cheap a flower. We purchased 10,000 flowers for $300 and 750 bouquets for $184. When all these 10,000 flowers were sold others were bought during the day costing $38.85."

AWARD OF HONORS.

Prizes Won in Oratory at C. U. Lyceum Competition.

William E. Davis, '15, was the winner in the annual oratorical contest of the Leo XIII. Lyceum of the Catholic University, held in McMahon Hall last evening.
